

Town of Garner Parks, Recreation & Cultural Resources

2017 Independence Day Celebration

Political/Religious Booth Registration

The Town of Garner respects the rights of individuals to distribute political and religious information in public parks and other constitutionally protected public forums, so long as the activities do not disrupt performances, impede traffic or create safety concerns.

Booth Rules:

- A 10 x 10 booth space will be provided. Any larger space requirement must be approved.
- Organization will be required to provide their own tables, chairs, tent, etc.
- All literature and signage shall be removed at the conclusion of the event
- Booth spaces will be assigned on a first-come, first served basis - meaning that the selection of vendors will be dictated by order of receipt of request for booth space.
- 2 parking passes will be provided for each group
- Organizations are not allowed to circulate through the crowd to advertise. Vendors are prohibited from aggressive techniques including but not limited to flashing lights, audio or "barking" as participants pass the booths. Please be courteous to other vendors.
- Set up for each group may begin by 1:30 and must be complete by 3:45pm. Cars must be removed from field by this time. Vendors who arrive after this time are no longer guaranteed a space and may not pull onto the field to unload due to safety concerns.
